To the Inhabitants of the Town of SALEM.

GENTLEMEN,

SALEM has the honor of being one of the most ancient Towns in the Massachusetts province. Your forefathers left England because they could not submit to unconstitutional arbitrary exertions of power; they chose rather to trust themselves with beasts and savages, than with Englishmen who had resigned themselves to slavery.——Almighty God protected them; wherever they were in danger, he was a present help to them; under his guardianship, what was then a howling wilderness, is now become a fruitful field; the labour and blood of your ancestors, have enriched the soil of this country, they voluntarily exposed themselves to every kind of hardship, and bravely met death in the high places of the field, that they might secure to you a quiet possession of those Rights and Liberties, which as Men, as Englishmen, and as Christians, they knew to you were intitled to. The sovereign King of the universe fairly and approved their design; and by his favour, you, Gentlemen, are born Freemen, justly entitled to claim the Rights of Men, of Britons, and Christians; for yourselves; and sacredly bound by the laws of God, and of nature, to use all means in your power, to transmit them intire to your Children.——

Your Representatives have, in a late important debate, behaved in such a manner, as leads us to conclude they were unacquainted with the minds of their Constituents. We are sure that their vote did not discover any attention to those sentiments of manly fortitude which so gloriously characterized the pious Founders of Salem, and other Towns in this Province. I am sorry far from desiring you to repeat the conduct of Col. B. & Maj. F. & I know not the men, nor do I even wish to see them.—If they have wilfully aimed at the ruin of their country, and from a wicked idolatrous heart, have endeavoured to sacrifice their own and your children to Moloch, the gnawings of a guilty conscience, and torment which they must inevitably feel, will be a punishment more terrible than your humanity would suffer you to wish inflicted on them. If they have erred through ignorance, which those who are more conversant with their understanding than I am, may perhaps charitably believe—the handing down their names to future generations with infamy and execration, will be sufficiently severe memento to the tools of future age.——But, Gentlemen, one thing appears to me necessary for you to do in your own Vindication, viz. to convene yourselves together, and examine the tendency of voting in the manner your representatives voted.—If you approve their conduct, declare your approbation—but if your good sense should force you to condemn what they have done as disgraceful and ruinous to you and your posterity, you will surely bear public testimony against it—whether it will be honorable to find, in some future history, that the Town of Salem was represented as ready and willing to give up her Rights, and sacrifice her Freedom, when called upon by——to do it—and when she knew that she was so represented, by her silence to acknowledge the justice of the representation? judge ye.

CINCINNATUS.

P. S. The above, with little Variation, may be considered as an Address to every Town in the Province which had the Misfortune to be scandalized by their Representatives in the last General Assembly.

How little Reason have the pretended Friends to Government to value themselves on such a pitiful acquisition?

We have the additional Pleasure to inform our Readers, that the late Speaker of the House of Representative of this Province, has received a Letter from the House of Representatives of the Province of Maryland, signed by their Speaker, in Answer to the Letter of the 11th of February last—a Letter which the extremely disgustful to Them, and thro' their Misrepresentations has procured the Displeasure of——when viewed in its native Simplicity, has received the Approbation of Men of the best Sense and Integrity.

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

THE King our most gracious Sovereign having been informed that a circular Letter, a Copy of which hath been communicated to his Ministers, was in February last sent by the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Colony of Massachusetts to the Speakers of other Houses of Assembly in North-America, has been pleased to order it to be signified to me that he considers such Measure to be of a most dangerous and factious Tendency, calculated to inflame the Minds of his good Subjects in the Colonies, to promote an unwarrantable Combination, to excite and encourage an open Opposition to an Denial of the Authority of Parliament, and to subvert the true Principles of the Constitution; but while I notify to you his Majesty's Sentiments with respect to this Matter, I am also to tell you that the repeated Proofs which have been given by the Assembly of this Province of their Reverence and Respect for the Laws, and of their faithful Attachment to the Constitution, leave little Room for his Majesty to doubt of their shewing a proper Resentment of such unjustifiable Attempt to revive those Distractions which have operated so fatally to the Prejudice of both the Colonies & the Mother Country, and I flatter myself that in Case such a Letter has been addressed to the Speaker of your House, you will confirm the favourable Opinion his Majesty at present entertains of his Maryland Subjects, by taking no Notice of such Letter, which will be treating it with the Contempt it deserves.

29th June 1768. HORATIO SHARPE.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

The humble Address of the House of Delegates.

May it please your Excellency,

IN Answer to your Excellency's Message of the 29th, we must observe, that if the Letter from the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Colony of Massachusetts-Bay, addressed to and communicated by our Speaker to this House, be the same with the Letter, a Copy of which you are pleased to intimate hath been communicated to the King's Ministers, it is very alarming to find that at a Time when the People of America think themselves aggrieved by the late Acts of Parliament imposing Taxes on them for the sole and express Purpose of raising a Revenue, and in the most dutiful Manner are seeking Redress from the Throne, any Endeavours to unite in laying before their Sovereign what is apprehended to be their just Complaint, should be looked upon "as a Measure of most dangerous and factious Tendency, "calculated to inflame the Minds of his Majesty's good "Subjects in the Colonies, to promote an unwarrantable Combination, excite and encourage an open Opposition to, and Denial of the Authority of Parliament, and to subvert the true Principles of the Constitution". We cannot but view this as an Attempt in some of his Majesty's Ministers to suppress all Communication of Sentiments between the Colonies, and to prevent the united Supplications of America from reaching the royal Ear. We hope the Conduct of this House will ever evince their Reverence and Respect for the Laws and faithful Attachment to the Constitution; but we cannot be brought to resent an Exertion of the most undoubted Constitutional Right of petitioning the Throne, or any Endeavours to procure and preserve an Union of the Colonies, as an unjustifiable Attempt to revive those Distractions which it is said have operated so fatally to the Prejudice of both the Colonies and the Mother Country. We have the warmest and most affectionate Attachment to our most gracious Sovereign, and shall ever pay the readiest and most respectful Regard to the just and Constitutional Power of the British Parliament; but we shall not be intimidated by a few sounding Expressions from doing what we think is right. The House of Representatives of the Colony of Massachusetts-Bay in their Letter to us, have intimated that they have preferred an humble, dutiful and loyal Petition to the King, and expressed their Confidence that the united and dutiful Supplications of his distressed American Subjects will meet with his royal and favourable Acceptance; and we think they have asserted their Rights with a decent Respect to their Sovereign, and a due Submission to the Authority of Parliament. What we shall do upon this Occasion, or whether in Consequence of that Letter, we shall do any Thing, it is not our present Business to communicate to your Excellency; but of this be pleased to be assured, that we cannot be prevailed on to take no Notice of or to treat with the least Degree of Contempt a Letter so expressive of Duty and Loyalty to the Sovereign, and so replete with just Principles of Liberty; and your Excellency may depend that whenever we apprehend the Rights of the People to be affected, we shall not fail boldly to assert and steadily endeavour to maintain and support them, always remembering, what we could wish never to be forgot, that by the Bill of Rights it is declared, "That it is the Right of the Subject to petition "the King, and all Commitments and Prosecutions for "such petitioning are illegal".

By Order of the lower House of Assembly,
June 23d, 1768. ROBERT LLOYD, Speaker.

Province of MARYLAND, June 24th, 1768.

SIR,

I HAD the Honour to receive your Favour of the 11th of February last, and on a Meeting of our Assembly I communicated it to our House, and I am desired to assure you they acknowledge themselves obliged by a candid and free Communication of Sentiments of a Sister Colony on a Point so interesting to the whole; and that their Opinion of the Consequences to the Colonies of the Operation of the several Acts of Parliament you allude to, coincide exactly with yours, and that they are perfuaded of the Necessity of harmonizing as much as possible in proper Measures for Redress.

This House upon considering the Acts of Parliament, prepared an humble, dutiful and loyal Petition to his Majesty, setting forth, That it is a fixed and unalterable Principle in the Nature of Things, and a Part of the very Idea of Property, that whatever a Man hath honestly acquired, cannot be taken from him without his Consent; that this immutable Principle is ingrafted as a Fundamental into the English Constitution, and is declared by Magna Charta, and the Petition and Bill of Rights, and from thence every British Subject, the most distant, is justly intitled to all the Rights of English-Men; that this Right is further declared and confirmed by our Charter; under the Confidence whereof our Fore-fathers encountered every Difficulty, to settle this Colony, which under Providence has increased his Majesty's Subjects, extended the Trade, and added to the Wealth of the Mother-Country: That we have always been permitted to enjoy this Right until lately; that we are not nor can we ever be effectually represented in the British Parliament; and that these Statutes do in our Apprehension infringe the great fundamental Principle, that no Man can be taxed but with his own Consent given by himself or his Representative. This, SIR, is the Substance of our Petition, and I am ordered to transmit it to Charles Garth, Esq; special Agent for our House of Delegates, to be presented, and we shall request him to co-operate with yours and the other Colony Agents in endeavouring to procure us Relief, and hope with you, his Majesty's great Goodness of Heart will incline him to receive the dutiful Supplications of his remote Subjects with Favour and Attention.

Just before the Close of our Session we received a Message from our Governor, a Copy of which you have herewith; and also a Copy of the Address by our House in Answer thereto, which will fully convey to you their Sentiments on the Subject.

I am, in the Name and by Order of the House of Representatives, Sir, with very great Respect, Your most humble & obedient Servant, ROBERT LLOYD, Speaker.

To the Honourable THOMAS CUSHING, Esq; Speaker of the Honourable House of Representatives of Massachusetts-Bay.

A LETTER, to a Friend in LONDON.

BOSTON, July 8, 1768.

SIR,

BY a Message from the Governor of this province, to the House of Representatives, accompanied with an extract from the Earl of Hillsborough's Letter, it appears that the resolution of the former house, which gave birth to their circular letter to the other Colonies, has been represented to his Majesty, in the odious light of a party and factious measure; and the last House have been required to rescind and disavow it. They have maturely considered the Requisition, and voted against a compliance with it, by a majority of 92 to 17. Could any thing of this nature appear strange on this side the water, one would wonder that a measure so innocent in itself,—so prudent, —so salutary for his Majesty's American subjects,—so respectful to the mother country, and so dutiful and loyal to the King,—transacted in the view of the world, and finally laid before the Governor himself, without the least notice from him to the House or the public, that he had any unfavorable sentiments of it, could be thus misrepresented. But it has been the unhappy fate of this province, perhaps of all America, to be defamed & abused without intermission, by those who ought to afford to his Majesty the best and truest intelligence, and to fall under his displeasure, at times when they have flattered themselves they were in the path of their duty, and hoped for the Royal protection and favor. Such are the times, and such the country we live in! There are men, enemies to the King and to his People, from whom both have a sacred right to expect better things, who have been incessantly endeavoring to strike out sparks of jealousy & discord, which may one day prove fatal to an empire!—Behold, what a great matter a little fire kindleth! And unfortunately for us, these malignant whisperers seem to have the ear and attention of the nation, while she is not aware, that there are men in America, some perhaps, whose rank and station, give her a just right of confidence, who seek their own greatness, tho', at the expence of her utter ruin.—These men are not satisfied with defaming the most worthy characters!——They must proscribe a Province! a Continent! And in imitation of that, hostis patriæ et humani generis, they seem ardently to thirst for a power to cut off the whole people at one stroke! These are not the suggestions of party & faction: They are the sentiments of the public: They were lately drawn into a dutiful and humble petition to the throne; wherein, among other articles of impeachment of a Governor of a province, it is alledged, "that he has practiced the sending over depositions to the ministry, against gentlemen of character, without giving the accused the least notice of his purposes and proceedings." And, "That they have reason to apprehend, that he has endeavour'd to perswade his Majesty's ministers to believe, that an intention was formed, and a plan settled, in this and the rest of the colonies, treasonably to withdraw themselves, from all connection with and dependance upon Great Britain; and from their natural allegiance to his Majesty's sacred person and government." This petition was read, and sustain'd, and partly accepted; and very probably would have been carried by a very large majority, if the Governor had not immediately prorogued, and afterward dissolved the assembly.—There are men, a real faction, who seem to aim at hurrying the people into despair and distraction; but when this same people have good sense enough to pursue cool, dispassionate, but firm, and manly, rational and constitutional measures.—Measures which the Faction itself dare not but apparently avow—Measures which even Governor Bernard has been heard to say, he would have heartily join'd in if desired; these men have the perfidy and audacity to represent them to his Majesty's ministers as the designs of a desperate, expiring Faction, tending to create unwarrantable combinations, and to excite an unjustifiable opposition to the constitutional authority of the parliament! Good God! Shall we be forever thus abus'd without Redress! Shall we be incessantly defamed as Rebels and Traytors! Do we deserve to have ships of war before us, as they now actually are, in hostile appearance? Or can they be designed to put weak women and children into terror? Shall we be perpetually threatened with troops and dragooning, for humbly laying before our royal Sovereign, the distress brought upon us, by the machinations of his and our enemies; imploring his gracious protection, and calling upon our fellow subjects and fellow sufferers, to join with us in humble supplication! Is this Rebellion against a British King! Will the Nation much longer be deceiv'd! What must be the event! May Heaven avert the ruin of the British empire! America, if properly cherish'd now, will live to support that Empire! America may one day however, bid defiance to the proudest of her enemies, and rise and shine imperial in the western world: This good land, not long since the habitation of savage beasts, and men more savage, may yet be the happy retreat of independence and freedom: abundantly sufficient to make some chosen heir of the Brunswick line, the most glorious Potentate the world has yet seen! Possibly you now think me enthusiastic:——I am calm and sedate: Let Britain live really Great, till in the course of time she must share the common fate of empires! Till that event, it will be her own and her colonies interest to be united: These I know must be your sentiments as well as mine: It is then our duty, as far as lies in our power to cultivate and establish the important union——I am,

Sir, Your hearty Friend and humble Servant,

To the Rev. Mr. Buckminster, Pastor of a Church in Rutland.

SIR, answered pa. 205.

IT has been said that you have in divers Companies declared, that the late Acts of Parliament touching America were just, and ought to be submitted to. This Sir, is a Time, when it is necessary for all Men, Clergy as well as Laity, to speak their Sentiments, and declare themselves either for God or Belial. If your Character has been injured by a false Report, you have a Power of exculpating yourself. If you really expressed your opinion as above, we should be glad to know from what Part of the British Constitution you draw your Reasons for the Right of Taxing British Subjects without their Consent. Let us know on which Side you appear; this is all we ask of you. Your Well-Wisher, ORTHODOXUS.

To the Rev. Mr. Bridgham, Pastor of a Church in Scituate.

SIR,

IT has been currently reported that you have in a late Conversation with some of your Parishioners (with whom you are supposed to have great Influence) declared that tho' the late Acts of Parliament were unjust, yet the People were bound to submit to them—This, Sir, is at once espousing the long-exploded and nonsensical Doctrine of Passive Obedience and Non-Resistance. If we have been misinformed, you will do well to clear up your Character—If the Report is true, we should be very glad to hear what you can offer in your Justification. From

Your Well-wisher, ORTHODOXUS.

NEW-YORK.

July 4. On Thursday Night the Charming Polly, Capt. Smith, arrived here in 12 Weeks from London, but last, in 5 Weeks from Madeira, on board of whom is come 43 Recruits belonging to the 54th Regiment. At the same Time that Capt. Smith left England, two Regiments embarked on board several Transports, bound for Halifax and Quebec.

Friday last his Majesty's 16th Regiment now quartered here, was reviewed by his Excellency General Gage at Greenwich, near this City, when they went thro' their Evolutions with the greatest Exactness, and to the general Satisfaction of a very great Number of Spectators.

We hear the 15th Regiment is soon to embark at Quebec for England; and that the 8th is expected in its Room.

NEW-LONDON, July 1.

Oyster-Ponds, Long-Island, June 12, 1768.

This Day about Two in the Afternoon, there appeared a strange Phenomena in the Heavens, directly under the Sun; its Colour was like the Rainbow, but in Form Horizontal, and ran from North to South: It continued about 15 Minutes and then disappeared, being observ'd by a Number of Spectators with Surprize.

PORTSMOUTH, (New-Hampshire,) July 2.

Yesterday a Petition, signed by a large Number of the respectable Inhabitants of this Town, was presented to the Selectmen, requesting them immediately to call a public Town Meeting, in order to give their Representatives particular Instructions in the present alarming and critical Time:—In Consequence of which we hear, a Meeting will be held next Monday at the usual Place, and its hoped the Inhabitants will all be punctual in attending.

Falmouth, Casco-Bay, July 5, 1763.

Last Week, during the sitting of the Superiour Court here, John Chipman of Marblehead, Esq; Barrister at Law (a Gentleman of a peculiarly benevolent Disposition, who was much respected and beloved) was suddenly seized in Court with an Apoplectic Fit, and in a few Hours died. He had for some Time before been in an ill State of Health. His Remains were decently interr'd, being attended by the Judges, the Gentlemen of the Bar, of the Town, and many People of the Neighbourhood.

BOSTON, July 11.

On Monday last, the 4th Instant, was published a Proclamation for Dissolving the Great and General Court or Assembly of this Province. (1)

The reigning Toast in this Province is the Massachusetts 92, and we hope it will soon be so throughout the Continent, as also throughout Europe.

We hear that ROBERT HALLOWELL, Esq; is appointed Deputy Comptroller for the Port and District of Boston; and an Officer for seizing prohibited and uncustomed Goods.

It has been conjected that if the Silver already drawn from us by the new Duties, was to be beat into thin Plates, that it would entirely cover the main Road from this Town to the Borders of York Government; but this Sum large as it is, is not any ways equal to the Sum lost the Province by the destruction of its Trade by means of the late Regulations.

The Beaver Sloop of War, Capt. Below, arrived here the Beginning of last Week from Halifax, and anchors now between Dorchester-Neck and Castle William, near where the Gaspee lately anchored, which has since sailed.

Wednesday last came into this Harbour, His Majesty's armed Schooners Hope, and Little Romney.

The next Day arrived here his Majesty's Ship Senegal.

On Friday last, came to Town from the Westward, his Excellency Lord Charles Greville Montague, Governor of South-Carolina, and his Lady.

It is said that one of the seventeen Slaves apply'd, very earnestly, to a Number of Coasters, bound to the Southward, for a Passage to Martha's Vineyard; but upon their enquiring who he was, and finding him to be a Slave, they refused him a Passage. This obliged him to conceal himself on board an Oyster-man, by which Means he got a Passage to the Cape; where he, very fortunately came across a kind, good-natured old Squaw belonging to the Vineyard, and homeward bound, who was very glad to see her Countryman, and hearing him lament his abject Condition, she was moved with Pity, and generously received him into her Canoe, and gave him a Passage with her over to the Island.

Last Night we had a very severe Thunder Storm, which Struck a House improved by Mr. Miles Greenwood at New Boston, shiver'd a large Beam, melted the Window Glass and some of the Pewter, knock'd Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, and another Person down, but they did not receive much Damage.

Capt Hall, in the Ship Diana, sails for London next Wednesday.

At a General Association of the Pastors of the consociated Churches of the Colony of Connecticut, convened at Coventry, June 11, 1768.

VOTED, That the Thanks of this Body be returned to the Reverend Dr. CHAUNCY of Boston, for the good Service he has done to the Cause of Religion, Liberty and Truth, in his judicious Answer to the Appeal for an American Episcopate, and in his Defence of the New-England Churches and Colonies, against the unjust Reflections cast upon them in the Bishop of LANDAFF's Sermon before the Society for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts; and that the Moderator present the same to the Doctor, and cause this Resolve to be Published in one of the Boston News-Papers, A true Copy,
